Dear Fr. Younes and the Community of Our Lady of Lebanon Parish,

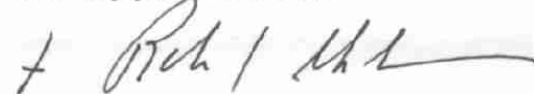

I wish to thank you for the wonderful spirit that was exhibited during my visit to Flint. Your kindness, hospitality and generosity are second to none. I truly enjoyed being with you. May the Lord continue to bless you as He has done in the past.

Please give my greeting and blessings to the First Communion class, for whom I had the honor of giving their first Holy Communion.

And a special thanks to you, Father, for your personal attention to us during the visit, and for the short trip to Dearborn, Michigan.

Wishing you all the joyful blessing of this Holy Season, I am

Sincerely yours in Christ,

+ Most Reverend Robert J. Shaheen
Bishop of the Eparchy of Our Lady of Lebanon

Quote for the Week

"There is no surprise more magical than the surprise of being loved. It is the finger of God on a man's shoulder." Charles Morgan

What is Trinity Sunday?

Trinity Sunday is the first Sunday after Pentecost to honor the Holy Trinity, the Father, Son and Holy Spirit. The Trinity, although the word does not appear in Scripture, is taught in Matthew 28:18-20 and 2 Corinthians 13:14 (and many of Biblical passages). It can never be understood or rationalized, but can only be accepted by faith. Faith comes through the work of the Holy Spirit and therefore it is appropriate that this mystery is celebrated the first Sunday after the Pentecost where the out-pouring of the Holy Spirit first occurred.

The Christian Church ponders with joy and thanksgiving what the Father, Son and Holy Spirit have done to accomplish the salvation of sinful humanity. It is brought to remembrance how Christians should respond to the love God has shown us, praising Him and giving Him glory. We remember the Father as our Creator, the Son as our Savior and the Holy Spirit as our comforter. Scriptural readings for the Trinity Sunday ceremony may include Psalm 8, beginning and ending with, "O Lord, our Lord, how majestic is your name in all the earth." 2 Corinthians 13:11-13 appealing to believers to aim for perfection, live in peace ending with the prayer that the grace of Christ Jesus, the love of God and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with all. Including again the commission Jesus left for believers in Matthew 28:16-20.

The Trinity, three persons in one God, is the basic mystery of our faith far beyond human understanding. Today, Trinity Sunday is to explain, to the best of man's ability, the clues written in Scripture for us to guide us to a fuller understanding. The Father is God from the beginning (John 1:1); Jesus revealed

Himself as equal to the Father in John 10:30, "I and the Father are one." Together they sent the Holy Spirit (John 14:26). "For there are three that bear record in Heaven, the Father, the Word and the Holy Spirit; and these three are one" (1 John 5:7-11).

Prayer to the Holy Trinity

Glory be to the Father, who by His almighty power and love created me, making me in the image and likeness of God.

Glory be to the Son, who by His Precious Blood delivered me from hell, and opened for me the gates of heaven.

Glory be to the Holy Spirit, who has sanctified me in the sacrament of Baptism, and continues to sanctify me by the graces I receive daily from His bounty.

Glory be to the Three adorable Persons of the Holy Trinity, now and forever.

Amen.
