He Could Have...But He Didn't.

He could have gotten a royal treatment but instead He chose to be every man and every woman. The first people to greet Him were not the aristocrats or the leaders of society but the lowly shepherds who smelled of sheep. They were probably the poor and the least educated members of society – but He chose them. And this is his Christmas message. It is not just about the romance with which we portray Christmas that makes it so special. It is the fact that Jesus brought to us, through his birth, a message of great love. He loves us poor or rich, educated or uneducated, young and old. He loves us even at times when we don't love ourselves.

I wonder where a modern day Jesus would have been born- but am sure he would not have chosen our five star hotels- maybe a modest home, a farm and even a garage. Jesus wanted to tell us that God does not look at appearances, at the surface of things or how glamorous things are. It is not about a huge Christmas tree or an amazing Christmas party. It's what's in your heart that matters the most, your faith in God, your love for yourself, for God and for your neighbor. Do you have anger, hatred, jealousy, and greed inside you? Or do have love, hope, forgiveness and goodwill? This is where Jesus looks – this where he will be looking for your celebration of his Birth.

Jesus did not come as an armed leader filled with pompous pride. He came to us as a baby and a baby is always a sign of new life, a better future and hope in tomorrow. A baby is also a sign of innocence and of love.

Live that peaceful Jesus- let Him inside your heart and let Him shine through you this Christmas. That would be the greatest gift you can give Him.

May this Christmas bring peace to your hearts and minds, may it fill you up with love and fuel you with hope and optimism.

Father Hanna TAYAR

St. Stephen

Feastday: December 26

Patron of Stonemasons

Stephen's name means "crown," and he was the first disciple of Jesus to receive the martyr's crown. Stephen was a deacon in the early Christian Church. The apostles had found that they needed helpers to look after the care of the widows and the poor. So they ordained seven deacons, and Stephen is the most famous of these.

Organ Concert at Our Lady of Lebanon

The Organ Concert was a great success! The performers were fantastic. Everyone in attendance thoroughly enjoyed the evening. We had approximately 175 people and almost as many compliments; not only for the music, but food as well. In addition we've had many requests for: "Lets do it again!" For the record, $1,054,50 was received in donations at the concert, all of which will reduce the debt. To date we have raised $42,500, leaving a balance owing of $2,000. This will be paid by year end from two donors.

Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia! This organ is for God's House and will serve our church for years to come in worship and in prayer!

Thanks to all of you who came to the concert, and a special thanks to those who have donated their time, talent and treasures, not only to make this event one to remember, but for all of the special events throughout the years!

Gods' Blessings upon us all...

Dee and Duane
