Wisdom for 2010...

1. Don't compare your life to others. You have no idea what their journey is all about.
2. Don't have negative thoughts or things you cannot control. Instead invest your energy in the positive present moment.
3. Don't overdo. Keep your limits.
4. Don't take yourself so seriously. No one else does.
5. Don't waste your precious energy on gossip.
6. Dream more while you are awake
7. Envy is a waste of time. You already have all you need.
8. Forget issues of the past. Don't remind your partner of his/her mistakes of the past. That will ruin your present happiness.
9. Life is too short to waste time hating anyone. Don't hate others.
10. Make peace with your past so it won't spoil the present.
11. No one is in charge of your happiness except you.
12. Realize that life is a school and you are here to learn. Problems are simply part of the curriculum that appear and fade away like algebra class but the lessons you learn will last a lifetime.
13. Smile and laugh more.
14. You don't have to win every argument. Agree to disagree... Submitted by Abouna Hanna

St. Euthymius the Great

Feast Day: January 20th

Euthymius was born during the reign of King Gratian in 377 A.D. He came from Armenia, and was the son of pious and faithful parents, Paul and Dionysia.

Euthymius' mother was barren for many years and his parents prayed fervently to God to grant them a child. Then they had a vision and heard the voice of an angel who told them to be cheerful because they would have a child and with the child's birth every heresy was going to be abolished and universal peace was going to be granted to the Church of God. For this reason this saint was called Euthymius (meaning good cheer).

When the Euthymius' father died, his mother offered him to Eutrojos, bishop of Melitine. Because he was intelligent in his studies and surpassed all men in virtue and asceticism, he was forced to be ordained a priest and to look after the holy hermitages and monasteries. At the age of twenty-nine, he went to Jerusalem and lived with St. Theoktistos in a cave on the mountain. While he was there, St. Euthymius cured many men of diseases. It is said that this saint fed four hundred men, who had come to the monastery, with very few loaves of bread. Moreover, through prayer he made many childless women fruitful. He also opened the gates of Heaven, as great Elijah had done, bringing rain during a period of drought. Once, the crowd saw a column of light descending from Heaven while the saint was celebrating the Liturgy. This light shone over the saint until he completed the Liturgy. A further sign of the purity and chastity of the saint was that he could spiritually see the mood and the condition of those souls when they approached to receive the Eucharist.

One story about St. Euthymius' clairvoyance involves a monk who was about to die. This monk outwardly appeared to be a prudent and moderate saint, but in his heart he was lecherous and intemperate because he allowed his labors to be sweetened with shameful thoughts. So, when this monk at the point of death, blessed Euthymius saw an angel taking the soul of that miserable monk by force, using a three-pronged spear. Immediately the saint also heard a voice revealing all the hidden and shameful thoughts of that dying monk. Euthymius died at the age of ninety-six in A.D. 473.
