Become Like Alex

Little Alex, three years old, often comes to our door. We always look down at him and say: “Hi, Alex! We’re very glad to see you.” But Alex never says a word. He looks neither to the right nor to the left. His face is set. His eyes are aimed like a gun toward just one thing.

In fact, his whole demeanor is directed toward just that one thing. “Where’s the cookies?” he demands.

“In truth I tell you, unless you change and become like little children, you will not enter the kingdom of God.” (Jesus’ words)

For a long time I thought that our Lord was praising the innocence of little children like Alex. But now, I don’t think that is what He meant. At least, I hope not ... because I know I am not innocent, nor will I ever be.

I’m one of those sinners that Jesus liked to hang around with. I’m one of those terrible people who try to look good and impress others. I’m a guy who worries about how my actions will be interpreted and wonder how best to call favorable attention to myself.

Little kids don’t do that ... not because they are innocent ... but because they know they are completely dependent upon others ... especially Mom and Dad.

So a little child doesn't struggle for position as a son or daughter. The relationship to Mom and Dad is assured. The child doesn't think about looking good for the mother; explaining himself to the father.

He already knows Mama and Papa love him and he trust that they will take care of him.

As children, we must change and recognize how dependent we are on our heavenly Father. As His chosen children, we need only to accept, with joy the wonderful gift of the Kingdom ...

... Happily just accept ... the cookies.

Submitted by Sub Deacon Earl Matte

Mark 10:14

Suffer the little children to come unto me and forbid them not, for of such is the kingdom of God. Verily I say unto you, Whosoever shall not receive the kingdom of God as a little child, he shall not enter therein. And he took them up in his arms, put his hands upon them, and blessed them.

The Exaltation of the Holy Cross

On the Feast of the Exaltation of the Cross (or Triumph of the Cross) we honor the Holy Cross by which Christ redeemed the world. The public veneration of the Cross of Christ originated in the fourth century, according to early accounts. The miraculous discovery of the cross on September 14, 326, by Saint Helen, mother of Constantine, while she was on a pilgrimage to Jerusalem, is the origin of the tradition of celebrating the Feast of the Exaltation of the Cross on this date. Constantine later built the Church of the Holy Sepulchre on the site of her discovery of the cross. On this same pilgrimage she ordered two other churches built: one in Bethlehem near the Grotto of the Nativity, the other on the Mount of the Ascension, near Jerusalem.

In the Western Church the feast came into prominence in the seventh century — after 629, when the Byzantine emperor Heraclitus restored the Holy Cross to Jerusalem, after defeating the Persians who had stolen it.

Christians “exalt” (raise on high) the Cross of Christ as the instrument of our salvation. Adoration of the Cross is, thus, adoration of Jesus Christ, the God Man, who suffered and died on this Roman instrument of torture for our redemption from sin and death. The cross represents the One Sacrifice by which Jesus, obedient even unto death, accomplished our salvation. The cross is a symbolic summary of the Passion, Crucifixion and Resurrection of Christ — all in one image.

The Cross — because of what it represents — is the most potent and universal symbol of the Christian faith. It has inspired both liturgical and private devotions: for example, the Sign of the Cross, which is an invocation of the Holy Trinity; the “little” Sign of the Cross on head, lips and heart at the reading of the Gospel; praying the Stations (or Way) of the Cross; and the Veneration of the Cross by the faithful on Good Friday by kissing the feet of the image of Our Savior crucified.

Placing a crucifix (the cross with an image of Christ’s body upon it) in churches and homes, in classrooms of Catholic schools and in other Catholic institutions, or wearing this image on our persons, is a constant reminder — and witness — of Christ’s ultimate triumph, His victory over sin and death through His suffering and dying on the Cross.

We remember Our Lord’s words, “He who does not take up his cross and follow me is not worthy of me. He who finds his life will lose it, and he who loses his life for my sake shall find it” (Mt 10:38,39). Meditating on these words we unite ourselves — our souls and bodies — with His obedience and His sacrifice; and we rejoice in this inestimable gift through which we have the hope of salvation and the glory of everlasting life.
